

Steven Halperson, Tuzara Photography

Herman Maril, In the Studio, 1973, oil on canvas, 18 x 26", Gift of Dr. Mary Ainsworth

You are invited . . .

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND UNIVERSITY COLLEGE
PRESIDENT SUSAN C. ALDRIDGE, PhD, AND THE UNIVERSITY ARTS PROGRAM CORDIALLY INVITE YOU
TO A LECTURE, RECEPTION, AND AUTOGRAPH
SIGNING TO CELEBRATE THE RELEASE OF

HIS OWN PATH The Spirit and Legacy of Herman Maril

A FULL-COLOR, HARDCOVER BOOK
CREATED TO HONOR THE ARTIST

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 4, 2011
3-5 P.M.
UMUC INN AND CONFERENCE CENTER,
ROOM 0105
3501 UNIVERSITY BOULEVARD EAST
ADELPHI, MARYLAND

Herman Maril was active in the art scene for more than 50 years. This book, released more than 100 years after his birth, is a reflection of his creative journey. It includes major essays by David W. Scott, PhD, and Howard E. Wooden with an introduction by David Maril, the artist's son. It also includes a DVD documentary about the artist.

GUEST SPEAKER

Christine M. McCarthy***
Executive Director, Provincetown
Art Association and Museum

Christine M. McCarthy, executive director of the Provincetown Art Association and Museum, will lead a discussion titled "Herman Maril: An Artist's Two Worlds."

Maril's son, David Maril, will sign copies of His Own Path: The Spirit and Legacy of Herman Maril. Books will be available for purchase for $49. More information is available at www.umuc.edu/art.

RSVP at www.umuc.edu/art
by November 28, 2011.

\ scheduled to appear*